Instructions and Samples for Preparing Form G-1650/G-1450

Effective October 28, 2025, USCIS only accepts electronic payments for fees. Checks/money orders will no longer be accepted. Therefore, you must choose an electronic payment option if your petition or request will be received by USCIS on and after October 28, 2025.

You can 1) use U.S. Bank Account ACH Transfer by submitting Form G-1650, or 2) pay with a credit card issued by a U.S. bank by submitting Form G-1450. If you do not have a U.S. bank account or a credit card issued by a U.S. bank, and you also do not know anyone with a U.S. bank account or credit card who is able to make the payment on your behalf, please send a message to let us know.

Either the Form G-1650 or the Form G-1450 should include the total amount of your petition/application filing fee and asylum program fee (if applicable). You can NOT submit both Form G-1650 and Form G-1450 to split the total payment.

If you will request premium processing at the time of filing, you should prepare a separate Form G-1650 or Form G-1450 for the premium processing fee. Please be advised that you should NOT use a different method of payment for your premium processing fee. For example, if you are filing I-140 and you plan to submit Form G-1650 for your I-140 filing fee and asylum program fee, then please also use Form G-1650 for your premium processing fee, and do not use Form G-1450.

Please see the instructions below to prepare your G-1650 or G-1450 form(s).

(1) Bank Account ACH Transfer (Form G-1650) (STRONGLY RECOMMENDED)

- You may authorize USCIS to debit directly from a U.S. checking or savings account by completing Form G-1650 (Authorization for ACH Transactions).
- We strongly recommend this option because it avoids issues such as credit card transaction limits and reduces the chance of payment failure.

  - Authorized Payment Amount: Please enter the amount of the required fee(s). Leave us a message if you are not sure about the amount.
  - Routing Number: This is a 9-digit code identifying the account holder's bank. Please ensure that you use the ACH routing number and not the wire routing number. Using the wrong one can cause payment rejection or delay. Please contact your bank if you are not sure.
  - Account Number: Provide the account holder's checking or savings account number, which is the second set of numbers at the bottom of a check, located to the right of the routing number, usually 10 digits.   - Please have the account holder hand-sign their name in black ink after printing the form on US letter size (8.5" x 11") paper. Please do NOT use digital signatures. By signing, the account holder authorizes USCIS to electronically withdraw the authorized payment amount from the given bank account. Note the account holder here refers to the holder of the bank account associated with this payment. If you are using someone else's bank account, please ensure the person holding the bank account signs their name in this section.

Important Reminders for Form G-1650

- Use only U.S. bank accounts that support ACH transfers.
- You must provide the correct bank account information, including the bank's full name, account type, routing number, and account number. If you are unsure about the account information, please confirm with the bank before submitting.
- The form G-1650 must be completed and hand-signed by the account holder in BLACK ink after printing out. Unsigned or digitally signed forms will be rejected.
- The account must have sufficient funds on the date USCIS processes the payment. If the payment is declined, USCIS will reject the filing and return your petition package.
- Please ensure the form name, edition date, bar code, and page number at the bottom of the page is fully printed. You may need to choose "Shrink over-sized pages" in the Print Options.

- USCIS will use the information you provide to process your ACH payment through the Pay.gov platform. You may need to contact your bank to permit the Department of Homeland Security to debit funds by ACH from your account (specifically, remove the ACH Debit Block). The Agency Location Codes (ALC+2) for USCIS are: 7001010330, 7001010331, 7001010335, 7001010390, 700101031B, 700101031D, 700101031E, 7001010333, 700101031F, 700101031J, 7001010325, 7001010326, 7001010327, 7001010328, 7001010329, 7001010371, 7001010372, and 70010103X5.

(2) Credit Card (Form G-1450) (NOT recommended)

- This option carries a higher risk of rejection, so we do NOT recommend this option.
- USCIS does not charge additional fees for payments made by credit card. Please note that USCIS only accepts credit cards issued by U.S. banks; cards issued by foreign banks are not accepted.
- If the card transaction fails, which may be due to an insufficient credit limit, security restrictions, or fraud alerts/misidentification, USCIS will reject the entire petition package. USCIS will not retry the transaction, and we will need to resubmit the petition.
